

SCOUTING FOR FOOD NEIGHBOR GUIDE

The Boy Scouts of America, in your community, celebrated its 100th Anniversary in February 2010. As part of our celebration, our first Good Turn for America Service Project is our Scouting For Food stewardship project, aimed at addressing the problem of hunger in the community in which we live and work.

We can not succeed without your help! Many local food banks and pantries are looking forward to having their shelves replenished with the items our Scouts will collect. Examples of items needed are canned soups; tuna; chicken or other meat; fruit; vegetables and evaporated milk.

WILL YOU HAVE THE BAG OF FOOD READY FOR PICKUP?

Please leave your bag of food at your front door for pick up where it can easily be seen by Scouts and accompanied adults.

Scouts will be in this area on Saturday, _____ between _____

If bag is not picked up by 4pm,
please call _____

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
